Price is what you pay.
Value is what you get.
